Catholic Corner

The Lectionary is a collection of selected passages from the Bible used as Scripture readings in the Liturgy of the Word for the Mass. The practice of reading passages from the Bible in liturgical settings dates back to the Jewish tradition in Old Testament times. In those days there was a reading of the sacred scroll of the Torah and singing of the psalms. The early Christians adapted the Jewish custom of reading passages from the Old Testament in their liturgical assemblies.

GOING ON VACATION?

While you are on vacation, our bills still keep coming. Our church needs you to help support the preaching of the Gospel, its administration of the Sacraments, keeping its lights and air conditioning on all summer, helping teach our children about God, and fulfilling its interest in providing wholesome activities for our teens. Without your tithes we could not accomplish all we do. Thank you for your weekly donations.

Also, while vacationing this summer, be sure to include your weekly Mass obligation in your plans. For Mass times and locations, visit: www.masstimes.org.

Remember, you can read our weekly bulletin on our website: www.stjosephcolumbia.org

CATHOLIC HOMESCHOOL CONVENTION

A MUSIC NOTE

The sung parts of the Mass consist of the Ordinary, the Propers, the Orations and the Dialogues. The Ordinary consists of the Mass parts that are the same every Sunday: Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus, and Agnus Dei. The Propers are the parts that vary according to the calendar: Entrance Chant, Responsorial Psalm, Alleluia with its verse, Offertory Chant and Communion Chant. Currently, on Sundays, the Cantor intones the Communion Chant. In the fall we will add the Entrance and Offertory Chants.

And so it is throughout the entire liturgical year. Every Sunday has appointed parts which should be sung. The Catholic liturgy is ever old and ever new. The forms of the past remain valuable to us today, just as the developments of the future must necessarily be rooted in a deep love and respect for liturgical tradition.

FREE CDs

Over the years the Choirs (adult and chlidren) of St. Joseph have made recordings of Christmas and other Sacred music as well as one of their performances at Spoleto. These CDs will be available to you free of charge on Community Sundays throughout the summer (in the Lobby of the Rowland Education Building) after each Mass. We hope you will take this opportunity to add some beautiful sacred music to your music library. Donations will be greatly appreciated.

MEDICAL MISSION TRIP TO GUATEMALA

The International Ministries Department of the Diocese of Charleston will be hosting the mission trip to San Pedro La Laguna September 21-28. Have you ever considered joining a mission trip? Now is the time! While these are medical mission trips, you do NOT have to be a medical professional to participate. Yes, we need interpreters, dentists, dental assistants, physicians, nurses and other medical professionals. However, we also need supportive staff participants to make these trips successful. These missions provide much needed health care for the people of San Pedro and surrounding villages; participants often find this experience to be life changing. If you are interested, please visit the website at http://sc-catholic.org/international-ministries or contact Deacon Gabriel Cuervo at gcuervo@catholic-doc.org or 803-726-7768.
